FOSTERING THE NEXT GENERATION OF CULTURAL HERITAGE DIGITAL MANAGERS THROUGH AI, BLOCKCHAIN, AND INNOVATIVE PEDAGOGIES

DigiHeritage empowers the next generation of researchers with the tools, training, and networks they need to thrive in a dynamic, inclusive, and forward-looking research environment.

EMPOWERING DIGITAL HERITAGE

CONNECTING CULTURE & TECH

SHAPING HERITAGE INNOVATION

DigiHeritage is a European project that supports the digital transformation of the cultural heritage sector. Bringing together higher education institutions, vocational training providers, cultural organisations, tech SMEs and policy actors from across Europe, the project aims to equip a new generation of professionals with advanced skills in AI, blockchain, 3D scanning and innovative digital tools. Through new training pathways, micro-credentials and collaborative solutions, DigiHeritage will help museums, archives and cultural SMEs preserve, manage and promote heritage in more innovative, accessible and sustainable ways.
